IAQ TIP

Did you know? As new homes are built to be more energy efficient, it can actually increase air pollution and contaminants inside the home. The EPA's Indoor airPLUS labeling program was established to ensure indoor air quality can be maintained.

This program requires additional design and construction features within 7 general categories:

- » Moisture control
- » Radon mitigation
- » Pest management
- » HVAC best practices with whole house ventilation
- » Proper combustion venting
- » Specifying building materials with reduced chemical off-gassing potential
- » Home commissioning

VISIT WWW.LENNOXPROS.COM/NEWS FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE AIRPLUS LABEL PROGRAM.
